

Rigdon Windsor

Salem, OH 44480
3307275388

rigdon.windsor@gmail.com
WWW: <https://github.com/DrRig3>

Adept at enhancing customer experiences and ensuring food safety, my tenure at KFC showcased my ability to foster relationships and train peers. Proficient in Python and versed in OSHA standards, I blend technical skills with interpersonal aptitude, driving operational excellence without compromising on quality or compliance.

Skills

- Verbal and written communication
- Operational standards
- Agile
- Python programming language
- Python programming
- First Aid/CPR
- OSHA 10 hour certification
- Food safety measures
- Customer interaction
- Testing and debugging
- Python programming proficiency
- Python django
- OSHA 10 certification

Professional Experience

August 2018 - Current	Restaurant Team Member	KFC, Salem OH
	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Restocked condiment dispensers, napkins, silverware and drink machines to prevent shortages.• Operated register to process payments and collect cash payment for order totals.• Assisted with in-store operations by disassembling delivery boxes, cleaning floors, and dishwashing.• Cultivated warm relationships with regular customers.• Trained new employees by demonstrating tasks and coaching during daily activities.• Used proper techniques to prepare food and ingredients.• Arrived to work in uniform and presentable in appearance to meet restaurant standards.• Verified freshness of ingredients and food by checking for quality, rotating stock and recording old and new items.

Education

Expected in June 2018	No Degree in Software Engineering
	MCCTC, Canfield, OH

Certifications

Python IT specialist

Black smiting, Leather work

I spend some of my free time black smiting making things like knives bottle openers and other little gizmos. With leather work I make wallets and sheaths.

Software

Python

Django